

App. No. 10/710,960

RECEIVED
CENTRAL FAX CENTER
SEP 20 2007

In the Claims:

Claims 1-18 (Cancelled)

19. (new) A method for air and bus charter management comprising: having a database; having said database contain data about a traveler to and from a casino; and allowing said data to be accessed by users of the system comprising having said other database systems being used to form a charter where said system compares said data against a rule set where said system will notify if a rule set is broken where said traveler is contacted based on a selection criteria where said selection criteria is based on the information contained in said database and where said system has a communication means for players and users to contact each other .

20. (new) A method of claim 19 further comprising having said system being accessible by a user through the Internet.

21. (new) A method of claim 19 further comprising having said data being historic data of said traveler.

22. (new) A method of claim 21 further comprising having said historic data being the travel history, seat assignments, and companions of said traveler.

23. (new) A method of claim 19 further comprising having said system contacting said gaming player.

24. (new) A method of claim 19 further comprising where said notification is an E-mail.

25. (new) A method of claim 19 further comprising where said notification is mailing.

26. (new) A method of claim 19 further comprising where said notification is telephonic.

27. (new) A method of claim 19 further comprising having the system contact other databases where said

App. No. 10/710,960

other databases are reservations systems databases.

28. (new) A method of claim 19 further comprising having said users searching bases on qualifying criteria.

29. (new) A method of claim 19 further comprising having said users searching for a plurality of travelers based on their travel information.

30. (new) A method of claim 19 further comprising having said users searching for a plurality of travelers based on their travel history.

31. (new) A method for air and bus charter management comprising: having a database; having said database contain data about a traveler to and from a casino; and allowing said data to be accessed by users of the system comprising having said other database systems being used to form a charter where said system compares said data against a rule set where said system will notify if a rule set is broken where said traveler is contacted based on a selection criteria where said selection criteria is based on the information contained in said database and where said system has a communication means for players and users to contact each other and having said users searching for a plurality of travelers based on their travel information.

32. (new) A method of claim 31 further comprising having said data being historic data of said traveler.

33. (new) A method of claim 32 further comprising having said historic data being the travel history, seat assignments, and companions of said traveler.

34. (new) A method of claim 31 further comprising having said system contacting said gaming player.

35. (new) A method for air and bus charter management comprising: having a database; having said database contain data about a traveler to and from a casino; and allowing said data to be accessed by users of the system comprising having said other database systems being used to form a charter where said system

App. No. 10/710,960

compares said data against a rule set where said system will notify if a rule set is broken where said traveler is contacted based on a selection criteria where said selection criteria is based on the information contained in said database and where said system has a communication means for players and users to contact each other and having said users searching for a plurality of travelers based on their travel information.

36. (new) A method of claim 35 further comprising having said data being historic data of said traveler.

37. (new) A method of claim 36 further comprising having said historic data being the travel history, seat assignments, and companions of said traveler.

38. (new) A method of claim 35 further comprising having said system contacting said gaming player.